Beath of Selemen Juncau.

One of the old oaks of our Western forest has fallen. Solomon Juneau, the earliest settler in Eastern Wisconsin, the founder and first Mayor of MILWAUKER, is no more! He died on File day last, at the Indian Payment in Shawano County, after an illness of only twenty-four

It is now thirty-eight years and sixty-five days since Mr. JUNEAU, accompanied by his father-in-law, Mr. JAQUES VIEAU, landed at Milwaukee, then an Indian village, with no white settler in Wisconsin nearer than Green Bay and Prairie du Chien. Mr. Junuar had selected this spot as a convenient trading-post for the Indians, and Fillmoreism, has been working for slavery exhere he built, in 1822, the first log-house, and. in 1821, the first frame building, erseted in Milwankee. The latter stood on the site now occur pled by Ludington's Block and the Setine' office Here Mr. JURBAN continued to reside, rearing up a family of fourteen children, thirteen of whom were born in this city.

When, in 1835, a Post-office was established in Milwaukee, Mr. JUNEAU was, by common con sent, appointed Postmaster, and that office he filled for nine years. In 1846, when Milwaukee became a City, Mr. JUNEAU was chosen the first Mayor. Shortly afterwards he removed to Dodge County, the' his sympathics and affections always clung to Milwaukee, and it was his oft-expressed intention to return hither and spend the evening of his days in the city which he had founded. Mr. Juneau was a man of excellent sense, o generous impulses, of a kindly and affectionate disposition, and of a lofty and honorable nature. In all the changes and vicisitudes of Pioneer life-and they were many-Mr. JUNEAU steadily and successfully maintained his reputation, as an honest, upright, straightforward man, The Indians looked up to him as a true friend and a trusty counsellor, and the white settlers gave him their entire confidence and regard. He had no enemies, but has left thousands of finds, and a most attached and devoted family to moun the loss of a kind and indulgent parent, good is perplexity and dismay, and the foreshadow citizen and a true man.

We understand that Mr. JUNEAU'S remains will be brought to this city for interment. It so, we suggest that our City Authorities, Military and Fire Companies, and Civic Associations, t dethe necessary steps to pay due honor to the me mory of the earliest settler and first Mayor of

The News is greatly exercised, because of the opinious expressed by us in Saturday's paper, touching the disposition of the North-Eastern own mind, that Milwaukeo is sold out to Chica go; firmly convinced that Gov. Its temper seems dreadfully soured since election. Nothing goes to its satisfaction, and our grief at its unhappy frame of mind is aggravated by the thought that we know not how t console it. Nevertheless, in spite of the lamen tations of the News, and the disappointed, but undoubtedly patriotic gentlemen for whem r speaks, we must clieg to the opinion that theng : are by no means so bad as the News would have the world believe; that the company who have got the N. From Our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, NOV. 12. Honor to free Wisconsin!-- and thrice again honor to the youngest child of the glorious Ordinance of '87! Honor to the mea of many nations and divers tongues that make up her prosperous population, and that united so zealously in sustaining the cause of free labor, free speech, and free thought! We have not, indeed, triumphed, as our fathers did not triumph at Lex- Columbia. ington and at Bunker Hill, but we have fought the good fight with hands and hearts clate, and, as was beautifully said last evening by one of the Jefferson, most eloquent as well as efficient speakers and Fond du Lac, workers in the Republican ranks-G. W. Curtis | Waukesha," -" as the receding steps of the men who retired Waushars," from Bunker Hill echo through history like the advancing tread of the great army of Freedom," so shall the united voices of the whole East and this Empire State, and those of Obio, Mithigan. Iowa and Wisconsin, sound thro' all time as a rallying cry that cannot be silenced nor resisted in behalf of our free matitutions, as our fathers understood and founded them, and as we mean they shall go down to our children's children.

Never was the Republican party so strong, so Never was the Republican party so countries determined, and so confident as in this, the hour Calumet, Adams," of its temporary defeat-never were men more sure of the future, or more content to watr-that hardest lesson for aident minds. We are sure naruest lesson for aident minds. We are sure Buffalo, of the future, and in that what reward for past he Bud Ax, or-what encouragement to continue systemat-, organized effort. While factious opposition the Administration to be installed on the 4th March next, is to be avoided by all means, the great ends of our organization are to be kept eteadily in view-the restriction of Slavery with. mits present limits—the reacting of Kansas from he infamous and oppressive rule imposed upo a by Border Ruffianism and Pierce democracy and the storn refusal to admit another slave Stax into the Union, so far as Ropublican votes and Republican offorts can avail.

But this organization can only be kept available by constant watchfulness and steady resolution. The slave power, alarmed as it cannot but he by such a voice as the free States have uttered, and by the demonstration of how insigafficant and powerless is the faction that, wheth er called Silver Greyism, or Know Nothingism, or oneion--will leave no stone unturned to compass division in our ranks, and so undermine our power. Fair speeches, fair promises, and ever ical concessions, may be held up before us, if only we will consent to disband; but let none such impose upon us. It by the moral force of the magnificent popular vote cast for Fremont, the successful party feels itself impolied to mor moderate counsels and policy than its advent threatene, we shall owe them no thanks thereforheir fears and not their convictions will work the change, and it is only by keeping alive those fears, by our perpetual and united supervision and opposition to every evil design, that any good can be hoped for from such an array as Buckanan, Wise, Toombs, Sanders, Soule and Sickles! By all means, therefore, let our flag be kept flying-our principles steadily pushed forward, and our organization perfected, and th Future is safe for Freedom.

The latest dates from Europe leave the conmercial and financial affairs of the continent, and especially of France, uncertain. There seem to have been mixed up with the political ascent ancy of Louis Napoleon so much financial tric ery and reguery-such a range of wildness speculation combined with such a predigality expenditure, that now, as the day of reckoning approaches, and accounts must be settled, then ing of much trouble. If the Bank of France ca maintain itself-all may be well. If that failsnot only pecuniary, but political difficulties re inevitable, and commercial bankruptcy or overthrow the throne comented with so man blood and so many broken oaths. We are no so near to Europe by the means of steamship nd likely soon, by the intervention of the Oceanic chetric telegraph, to be nearer, that cannot be insensible to, or unaffected by great shocks that occur there. Yet we need n apprehend any great evil, even though the throne of the third Napoleon should crumble, or the Winniel. Land Grant. It is surprised to find the Sentinel wild speculation of the Credit Mobilier be explo-"arrayed against the interests of the city;" declinto this air. Our safety and tranquility "prepared to believe" that we were in the series are scated upon the wide and firm basis of an ex- Lawrence. of the new arrangement; tally ratisfied, in its | tended area of agriculturalists-the class least | limble to be affected by commercial convulsions, or political revolutions.

If we could doubt heretofore about the conservative stand and discerning spicit and judgment of the freemen of the land, the result of the recent Presidential election would remove all such loubts-but when I speak of ficemen, I mean only those who use and live by and through free labor, for the owner of the slave has no interest in common with the owner and tiller of free soil. As little has the decizen of such boles as the Five Points in this city, and other like portions of any great city. Yet it is in the cities, and in the worst parts, and from the worst parts of the population of the cities, that the Slave Power, in he person of Mr. Buchanan, has just triumphed. For instance, the Five Paints has given him 574 votes : and 25 for all others! Can any fact be more significant of the nature of the contest? Of slose 571 votes, it would, I apprehend, not be far from truth to assume that the 74 may have been cast by sober, intelligent and honest men -the great balance-500-by lowers, drunk ards, thieves, bullies, and bawds. What a feather in the cap of Mr. Buchanan-to have so marked ence, in so marked a locality as the F^{γ}_{PC} Paints of the city of New York !

We congratate our friends in the iffirst district on the election of a man "that is a man" to represent them in Congress. No event of the election gives us mere sincer and hearfielt satisfaction. It is now some 18 years since we first knew him as a squater on Uncle San's domain at East Troy. A sid all the changes that have come over the people and the State since then, John F. Potter has remained true to his integrity. Always as ally and independent—always ready to stand up for the right and vindicate the oppressed against the oppressor, whether in his own neighborhood or elsewhere, whether white or black; ever fall hid to truth and rightcousness—neither intimidated by threats nor cowed by will--but meet them on all proper occasions an in all proper places .- Conservator.

Settlement of the Lauatic Asylum Contract. The Legislatue at its last session, passed a law, appointing "imothy O. Howe, Frederick S. Lovel and Wm. THE MISSING BARK JOHN V. AVER .- There is warehones. Prices ross during the week for several days, but again subsided on Baturday, and we quo'e a rather duit market, yesterday, at 68285 for No. 1 spring; now hardly the possibility of a doubt but that levery soul of the ill-fated John V. Ayer has found a watery grave. The messonger dispatched to St. Josep 1 by the owners of the Ayer, returned to the c ty Saturday evening, and brought with him the looks and papers of the vessel, which had flow of to the cast shore of the Lake Prime lots bring $1,18a1,20, while inferior lots are no. dull at $1,10a1,12. with him the looks and papers of the vessel, which had flowed to the east shore of the Luke, some four mile north of St. Joseph, and were picked up by Ir. J. G. Smith, who resides in that locality. Phero also came ashore in the desk of the captain, a port-monosine containing $67 in bank bills, a razor and case, ministure of a woman and ch kl, and several other articles.—
The boat of the Ayer also drifted on shore the day before yes orday, about two miles from St. Joseph, and h d been brought to that piace.
From the pipers found it is ascortained that the following reamen shipped at Buffield, Sept. 30th, to Chicago and back, and me among the lost: Charles underson, James Ponley, Richard Berry, Thos. to ook, Patrick Troy and Peter Kenney. Capt. Tros. McClanning, and the first and second mates, names unknown, are also lost.

ney. Cupt. Thos. McChanning, and the first and second mates, names unknown, are also lost.

The Ayer had made but one trip, and was therefore nearly new, and reckened a first-class vessel. She cost about $19,000, and was insured for $12,000, with an insured freight list of $4,000. Sho was owned by Col. B. S. Shepard of this city, and Samuel Halo, Eq., of Konosha.—Chicago Technical and A. 17.
